

Gabriella Borea

Mechanical Engineer

About

As part of our New York office's mechanical department, Gabriella brings a unique and fresh approach to every project. During her time at Kohler Ronan, she has grown and fostered her HVAC system design expertise and developed a diverse portfolio. Already, Gabby has served esteemed institutions such as Barnard, Colgate, the University of Notre Dame., Lincoln Center, and the New York Public Library.

As Mechanical Engineer, Gabriella designs mechanical systems and coordinates her work with that of the other engineering disciplines. She is also responsible for related equipment selection.
